~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL

This matter came to be heard on June 3, 2022, on Defendants' Motion to Compel. After considering the parties' filings, the oral argument of counsel¹, and the entire record in this case, the Court hereby rules as follows:

Defendants are permitted to serve Ms. Hagh with documents at the address she has listed with the Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility. Hand-delivery of documents to that address shall be deemed properly served. To the extent Defendants need to correspond with Ms. Hagh electronically (given that she has blocked emails from defense counsel from being received at her email address), they may do so by filing such communications via the Court's e-filing system. Ms. Hagh is required to receive service of any document filed through the e-filing system. The Court understands this will result in substantial added filings on the docket in this case.

DATE

JUDGE KELVIN D. JONES
